About Everflyth

An exciting newcomer to the English wine scene, Everflyth was founded by husband-and-wife team Sam and Ben Ellis in 2016, when they planned the first 2.8 hectares of vines at the foot of the Ditchling Beacon in the South Downs National Park in East Sussex.

The name is a nod to the six martlets of the Sussex crest, symbolising knowledge, adventure and learning. Said never to land, these mythical birds are 'ever-in-flight' and make up the Everflyth feather, a symbol of the estate's focus on innovation as well as motto: "never settle". This is certainly evident in its ambitious and forward-thinking approach to winemaking and regenerative viticulture.

Tasting Note

A generous nose of baked apples and citrus is complemented by undertones of red cherries. Flavours of buttery lemon tart and pastry on the palate are balanced by backbone of beautiful bright acidity that lends elegance and finesse to the wine.

About Babich

Babich have a heritage that is rare in New Zealand, with their history long predating the viticultural boom of the last thirty years. Croatian immigrant Josip Babich made his first wine in Auckland in 1916 and one hundred years later his descendants are still going strong - the third generation of the family David Babich now holds the reins.

They boast an impressive 428 hectares under vine, spread across thirteen vineyards in Auckland, Hawke's Bay and Marlborough, supplying the vast majority of the grapes that go into their wines. This long history does not prevent them from thinking of the future.

In 1987 their Fernhill Vineyard in Hawke's Bay was the first to be sustainably registered in New Zealand and this commitment to the environment continues to this day, enacted through their practices in both the vineyard and the winery.

Tasting Note

Zesty aromas of grapefruit and lemon are followed by gooseberry, blackcurrant leaf and mineral notes on the medium palate. A vein of lively acidity lifts this vibrant wine.

About Oremus

In 1993, the Álvarez family, of Vega-Sicilia fame, established Bodegas Tokaj Oremus. The vineyards are spread over more than a dozen different hillside sites, of which ten were classified 'prime classis' in 1803. Here the group is able to produce exceptional white wines, both dry Furmint and sweet Aszu styles, from 3 puttonyos up to the mythical Eszencia. All present the region's unique combination of succulence and tang, and together showcase the amazing versatility of Furmint grown in this historic location

Tasting Note

This Combines Furmint's bold acidity with flavours of juicy dessert apples and white flowers. The texture is almost waxy, with pleasing saline on the lengthy finish

 South Africa

About Buitenverwaching

It all began in Constantia, the narrow bit of peninsula where Governor Simon van der Stel planted 750 hectares of vines in 1685. The South African wine industry has had many changes of fortune in the three centuries since, but this historic estate remains, divided now between five wineries. Buitenverwaching, meaning 'beyond expectation', belongs to the Mueller family, who have lovingly restored both its buildings and its reputation as a source of particularly elegant South African wine.

Tasting Note

An exquisite Bordeaux-style blend with rich red fruit characters reminiscent of ripe raspberry and blackcurrant, and undertones of dark chocolate and tobacco

About Pulenta Estate

Pulenta Estate was founded in 2002 by brothers Hugo and Eduardo Pulenta, fourth-generation winemakers, with the goal of translating their family legacy and their father's pioneering spirit into a modern, innovative winery focused on producing limited quantities of great wines. They have quickly carved out a reputation for precise, elegant wines across a range of varieties and premium price points.

Tasting Note

Combining both intensity and freshness with aplomb, the Gran Malbec is redolent with bright cherry fruit and floral complexity on the nose, followed by ripe plums, vanilla and toasty oak on the palate. The silky tannins unfold through the mid-palate, leading to a bold and lengthy finish.

VODKA 50ML

Kettle One Vodka	6.50
Kettle One Citron Vodka	7.50
Haku Vodka	8.50

The name Haku celebrates the origin and the craft of this Premium Japanese Vodka. The kanji (Japanese character) for Haku means "white". But the subtlety of the Japanese language often gives kanji several readings. Read as "shiro" it would merely mean white. But read as "haku", it is intentionally rooted and elevated. Rooted as referring to "Hakumai" (白米) - Japanese white rice - the origin of the liquid. Elevated as evoking "Junpaku" (純白) - "untainted" and brilliant - a tribute to the craft of mastering a clear, clean tasting and luminous vodka, carefully filtrated through bamboo charcoal for an unparalleled soft, round and subtly sweet taste.

The gin's nose yields a subtle juniper aroma with an undertone of mountain pine and other herbaceous notes. The taste is complex but strikingly smooth encompassing floral, fruity and spicy flavours which can be enjoyed both straight and in a cocktail. Each bottle is custom-made, adorned with hand-written labels and embossed with a crest. Each batch is named after past great tuskers and elephants that Elephant Gin's partner elephant conservation foundations currently help to protect. Elephant Gin donates 15% of the bottle profits to elephant conservation charities.

Fifty Pound	10.50
-------------	-------

In 1736, during the reign of GEORGE II of ENGLAND, an annual levy of 50 pounds, known as the 1736 GIN ACT, was imposed on those wishing to produce and sell gin. Only two distilleries agreed to pay this tax... Fifty Pounds Gin is distilled in single batches, produced in small quantities in order to preserve its quality.
